

GRAND STRAND BOWLERS ENSHRINE FOUR

The Grand Strand Bowling Association inducted four of its members into the Grand Strand Bowling Hall of Fame Saturday night at the Clarion Hotel. Two bowlers were recognized for their Bowling Achievements while one was honored for Meritorious Service and another for Youth Bowling Support.

April Holliday has been a driving force for the youth bowling programs at the Waccamaw Bowling Center for many, many years and is also an outstanding bowler.

Carolyn Massaro arrived on the Grand Strand in 1998 and immediately displayed her outstanding skills as a bowler. She has consistently ranked among the very top women bowlers in the area.

David Pinsky has spent over 15 years as a League Secretary and Association Board member on the Grand Strand. He has always given his full support to all of the Association programs.

Richard Ray has been among the handful of top bowlers for over 15 years. He is known as clutch performer with many honor scores to his credit including a 860 series which did not include a 300 game.

The honorees were welcomed by over 50 friends and relatives.
